

HARDING DECLARES LAW ENFORCEMENT BASIS OF PROGRESS

Candidate Took High Ground Discussing Social Justice

DIRECT STATEMENT ON PROHIBITION QUESTION

MARION, O., Oct. 1.—In a front porch speech today outlining his program of social justice, Senator Harding described enforcement of law as a fundamental of social progress, and declared particularly that "we must all condemn without qualification the failure to enforce prohibition."

A federal department of public welfare was advocated but he proclaimed his opposition to concentration of too much authority in Washington and asserted that there was grave danger in authorizing the federal government "to take from local communities all the burdens of social conscience."

The allusion to prohibition was the first to be made publicly by the candidate since his speech of acceptance. Senator Harding also spoke for industrial peace, protection of maternity, humane regulation of labor conditions, prohibition of public health, aid to child welfare and the stabilization of employment as factors in social betterment.

Women and the League
The speech was delivered to a delegation of women and the senator presented the league issue as it affects woman's interests.

Tonight Senator Harding made public a telegram to Edward A. Ryan of Washington, D. C., who was arrested at the senator's Baltimore meeting Monday night at which he had asked the nominee whether he agreed with Senator Johnson in his position to scrap the league of nations.

Mr. Harding expressed regret that there had been an arrest and declared that he did not count any senator's attitude but was trying to harmonize the views of American leadership that we shall be able to adopt a policy in our world relations to which Americans will unite.

In his discussion of the league today the candidate said he was sure "the mothers and wives of America do not wish to give their sons and husbands for sacrifice at the call of an extra constitutional body like the council of the Paris league."

"You note the contract. America is not a welder. If you do in and don't keep your promises you have made it the colossal disappointment of all time. Let us hold to ourselves the right to determine what America's obligation is to the rest of the world."

ROTARY CLUB AT WEEKLY LUNCHEON

The Rotary club held a regular weekly luncheon Friday at the Pacific Hotel. While there was a large attendance of members, the record of a week ago was not equaled. At least ten Rotarians were in attendance at the Passavant hospital luncheon at Centenary church.

President Pontius introduced as the speaker of the day, Mr. J. T. White. Without announcing the single tax theory as his theme, Mr. White gave a presentation of that subject. It proved to be most forceful and interesting and a number of the members of the club expressed themselves as having a new understanding of the theory. While not wholly converted, they admitted that the theory merited a great deal more study than they had given it.

Wayne E. Stephens of Springfield spoke for a few moments. Mr. Stephens represents the organization which is sponsoring, in connection with the State Historical Society, the preserving of war records of Illinois. The purpose is to collect data not only relative to soldiers but to civilians as well.

COX IS WELCOMED BY BIG AUDIENCES IN OKLAHOMA

Many Democratic Doctrines

SAME OLD TALK OF SENATE OLIGARCHY

TULSA, Okla., Oct. 1.—Oklahoma today gave Governor Cox a reception rivaling in enthusiasm of the Democratic presidential candidate's western trip, which closes tomorrow, after covering more than 10,000 miles in twenty-two states. The governor's speeches already have passed the 200 mark.

Headed by the league of nations, Democratic doctrines were preached by Governor Cox to ten Oklahoma audiences which roared their approval. Cheering crowds, waving banners, brass band parades and jammed auditoriums, marked the governor's tour today through the state, closing here tonight with a torchlight parade, fireworks and a rousing meeting.

Touched On Local Issues
With the league predominant, Governor Cox's addresses were replete with discussions of agricultural questions of special local interest in the cotton, wheat and oil belts through which he traveled. He also continued denunciation of "the senatorial oligarchy," especially Senator Lodge of Massachusetts.

A new form of attack was encountered by the governor at Chandler, from which a sheaf of telegrams signed by various names had been sent him ahead. He asked his audience about the telegrams, mostly meeting the questions on the league and some were declared fictitious and others unauthorized.

The affair, Governor Cox declared, disclosed "tricks of politicians—skulduggery." "They won't fight on the level," he said, reiterating his charges that Republican "scouts" had preceded him in a campaign of newspaper silence, misrepresentation and embarrassment.

New Charges Against Hays
A new charge regarding alleged "scouts" of Chairman Hays of the Republican National committee was made by Governor Cox at Sapulpa, where he spoke from an electric lighted grand stand to a large crowd on the railway station lawn. The governor charged that "thousands and thousands" of Republican agents were posing as Democrats and telling persons whom they meet that they wanted no more Democratic rule.

Referring to the telegrams sent him from Chandler, the governor said that one asking a question on intricate international law, it developed, purported to have been sent by colored leaders. Governor Cox also predicted "startling events in the councils of the reactionary group" within a short time.

HIGH TRIBUNAL IS URGED TO CONTROL BASEBALL AFFAIRS

League Heads Suggest Plan for Powerful Board

METHOD WOULD WIPE OUT EXISTING EVILS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Representatives of four major league baseball clubs tonight started a movement designed to "clean up baseball forever" by taking control of the game out of the hands of men financially interested and placing it under a "civilized tribunal" to be composed of men "of unquestioned public standing."

A letter was sent to every major league club asking their approval of the plan. The letter was signed by William Veck, president of the Chicago National League club, Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League club, Barney Dreyfuss, president of the Pittsburgh club and John J. McGraw, vice-president and manager of the New York National League club.

It proposes that the National commission be abolished because "in its present form it cannot be impartial" and that in its place there should be a tribunal whose members would receive higher salaries than anyone now connected with baseball.

Prominent Men Suggested

General Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, former President William Howard Taft, Senator Hiram Johnson, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis and William Gibbs McAdoo are some of the men proposed for the tribunal, but the letter adds that none as yet have been approached on the subject. The tribunal would be in absolute charge of all organized baseball leagues, of the players, the managers and owners and league president and its decisions would be beyond appeal.

The letter declares that such a plan must be worked out immediately if baseball is to continue as the national game. As a basis for proposed action the signers have agreed to a preliminary plan and agree to put it into operation, the letter says.

"The undersigned urge that the three most prominent men obtainable (in no wise connected with baseball) be obtained to act as a superior tribunal, and that such tribunal shall have unreviewable authority over presidents of all leagues, club owners, players and every other person, act or thing connected with baseball."

"The mere knowledge of control of baseball by such men would insure that the public interests would be first served and that, therefore all existing evils would disappear."

"Everyone connected with baseball would be absolutely under control of this tribunal."

"Likewise, it would be empowered to establish a proper relationship between minor and major leagues. It is unthinkable that such an environment and under such supervision anything unclean or unsportsmanlike could even remotely creep into the national game."

The letter requests club owners to sign an enclosed memorandum and return it to President Veck.

NEW ANGLE SEEN IN REPUBLICAN STATE SQUABBLE

If Court Rule Gives Oglesby
Nomination Small Will Be
Independent Candidate

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR PERHAPS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Backers of Len Small for Governor tonight sent petitions to Springfield to be filed tomorrow asking that Small's name be included in the November 2 ballot. The petitions were drawn up, leaders said, so that Small can run independently in case Lieutenant Governor John Oglesby receives the nomination when the final primary count is announced. Tomorrow is the last day for filing petitions.

The petitions were circulated following reports that Oglesby's backers were preparing a petition asking County Judge James T. Burns to throw out the ballots in 300 Chicago precincts on charges of fraud. It was pointed out that loss of these precincts would cut heavily into Small's vote for a big majority of his ballots were polled in Chicago.

Petitions also were sent to Springfield to place the name of Maynard Harlan, twice candidate for mayor of Chicago on ballot. These petitions were prepared by a group said to be dissatisfied with both Small and Oglesby.

With James Hamilton Lewis, the Democratic nominee for governor of the state thus became possible.

GRIFFITH MAKES CHARGES AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

Sinn Fein Founder Says Leaders Are to be Assassinated

SHOWS DOCUMENTS TO SUPPORT CLAIM

DUBLIN, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press).—Sensational charges that the government itself was responsible for reprisals in Ireland and that a certain number of Sinn Fein leaders were marked for assassination were made by Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, who said he was first on the list of intended victims.

Mr. Griffith, to support his statements, exhibited to the group of American, English and continental newspapermen, to whom he made a long statement preferring that charges, alleged official documents secured by Sinn Fein agitators. Among these papers was an official permit, alleged to have been signed General Sir Neville McCreedy, military commander of Ireland. It was made out to a man named Hardy, who had a life long career of felony and imprisonment and who is alleged to have been released prematurely from prison on a ticket of leave signed by Ian MacPherson, as chief secretary for Ireland permitting him to move about freely in Ireland unhampered by police surveillance in the role, as Mr. Griffith asserted, of a government spy. Altho accustomed to almost daily sensational Dublin was greatly excited over the revelations.

Mr. Griffith, which were published in one of the afternoon papers. It is pointed out that the documents are authentic, Mr. Griffith is liable to arrest under the "defense of the realm act" and under the new Restoration of Order Act, for having them in his possession and particularly a military order relating to a movement of troops not yet carried out.

The regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Central Christian church was held Friday night with a large attendance. Frank Byrns, president, was unable to be present and Rev. M. L. Pontius presided in his stead. The address was by Rev. T. H. Tull, who took "The Church" as his theme. He emphasized the thought that a church is not the building of brick or stone but the organization and the people who compose it. AGED MINISTERS GRANTED MORE AID BY METHODISTS

The Rock River Conference
Doubled Sum Used for
This Purpose

CENTENARY MOVEMENT COMMENDED BY BISHOPS

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 1.—Increase of its endowment for relief of aged ministers from $500,000 to $1,000,000 was unanimously approved by the Rock River conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session here today.

Dr. Charles Kelly, chairman of the Superannuates' Relief association and board of conference claimants, reported that $507,500 had already been pledged for the fund of which $307,000 is now in the treasury.

Bishop F. M. Bristol of Chattanooga, Tenn., presided at today's sessions which were held in the church of his boyhood. In one address he urged the ministers "not to overlook the emotional side of religion," condemned "unemotional intelligence" and declared that present day emotion is expressed thru the check book. "It is the minister's job to help sinners part with their sin and saints part with their money."

Speaking on the centenary campaign of the church the bishop urged that laymen must magnify the opportunity to give money to God. "A man must conserve his money making genius; God wants money from the man he has enriched."

He asked the ministers to have more courage in asking for money.

"What right have you to tell men what to do with their money? The same right that a real estate dealer, an insurance agent or any man that hangs a 'Boots and Shoe' sign over a store has to advise a man to invest money with him."

BOLSHEVIKI FALL AS POLISH ARMY PRESSES FORWARD

Poles Take Many Prisoners
On Grodno-Lida
Sector

VILNA MAY FALL
AT ANY MOMENT

RIGA, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press).—Military news from the Russian-Polish and Polish and Lithuanian fighting fronts is entirely over shadowing the Peace Conference. Messages received by the Polish delegation from the Grodno-Lida sector say virtually all of the fourth Bolshevik army has been captured by the Poles and that all the staff was taken, except the commanding general and the chief of the staff.

Prisoners to the number of 26,650 were made with 426 machine guns and 26 heavy field guns were captured. Among the prisoners was a special detachment of communists and many technical men. Thursday reports recorded the capture of Baranovitchi and announced that the capture of Vilna was expected at any moment. The Bolsheviks yesterday submitted a letter to the Polish delegation objecting to their delay in replying to the soviet preliminary peace terms.

Adolph Joffe, head of the Russian delegation had a conference last night with Colonel Tallents, British commander at Riga. As a result there were many rumors today that the British are offering their good offices to save the Riga conference from the same fate as the Minsk conference.

WILL CONFER ON SEWER STATISTICS

Harry F. Ferguson, acting chief engineer for the department of public health, is coming to Jacksonville today to confer with members of the citizens' sewer committee and Engineer Henderson. Mr. Ferguson will make an investigation of the creek in which the sewage is now discharged and will go over the whole situation generally with reference to an enlarged sewer system for Jacksonville. Frank J. Waddell is the chairman of the special sewer committee.

CLEVELAND NEEDS ONE MORE GAME

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Cleveland can clinch the American League pennant by winning one of its two remaining games or by Chicago losing one of its two games.

The best Chicago can do now is to tie the league leaders and this would necessitate winning twice, while the Indians lost their two games with Detroit.

LODGE ATTACKS THE WILSON RECORD

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 1.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader of the senate in an address here tonight, attacked the leadership of President Wilson, declared the conduct of the war was marked by "wild extravagance and reckless expenditure of money," denounced the covenant of the league of nations and urged the voters of Connecticut to re-elect Senator Brandegee.

WORKERS READY FOR PASSAVANT CAMPAIGN

Fine Enthusiasm Shown at Conference Held
Friday—A. A. Curry Pledges First $2,000
Toward Fund—Hospital Work and Need
Explained—Will Attempt to Raise $30,000

That was a fine meeting that workers of the Passavant hospital campaign held Friday at 12:30 o'clock at Centenary church. There was interest, and enthusiasm, every township in the county being well represented, and there was every indication that the campaign will start with vim and will close in the same way within the specified period.

William Barr Brown, who is the campaign chairman, presided and explained briefly the campaign purpose and introduced the several speakers. At the conclusion of the formal program Mr. Brown with his assistant, Thomas H. Buckthorpe, County Director C. S. Black, City Director H. M. Capps, met with the township captains to discuss some further details of the work.

Before the serving of the dinner began Mrs. William Barr Brown sang a serenade with Miss Gladys Carroll as accompanist. Harold Dunlap played violin solo. During the dinner hour with Miss Carroll as accompanist, Mr. Dunlap gave a short program, these musical numbers all adding greatly to the pleasure of the occasion.

The women of Centenary church received many compliments for the excellence of the dinner service.

It is no wonder that there was enthusiasm for it was revealed early in the proceeding that A. A. Curry, president of the board of trustees of the hospital, has pledged $2,000 to the fund if other members of the board and physicians will make the total from the trustees and physicians $5,000. It only remains to secure $1200 to have this $5,000, which is one-sixth of the total amount sought.

Among those who spoke yesterday were A. A. Curry, H. H. Bancroft, Felix E. Farrell, H. M. Capps, Charles S. Black and Miss Vennor. Chairman Brown said he had expected to call upon others but time did not permit.

Building Monuments.

Mr. Curry, speaking briefly, said: "The longer I live the more I believe in helping institutions. Many a man making his will provides for the payment of debts, for certain bequests and the erection of a tombstone. I am impressed with the fact that the best time to build monuments is while we live, and this can be done better in no other way than by contributions toward the support of such institutions as Passavant hospital."

"For years I have aided the hospital in an indifferent sort of way, giving something toward the funds when asked. But after taking membership in the board of trustees and coming into closer touch with the hospital work, I have come into an understanding of what that work is and how much the hospital means to Jacksonville, Morgan county and the surrounding territory."

"The hospital is not for the benefit of the doctors or for those who are well. It is for those who can afford to pay for medical care and nursing, but it is equally for the poor and unfortunate. Sometimes I used to think the hospital was just a workshop for the doctors and that these same physicians and surgeons do a great deal of unselfish, unpaid for work for the hospital."

The Hospital Needs.
Horace H. Bancroft, who is chairman of the committee on speakers, said that a community, just like a country or a state, is known by its institutions. He referred to the present country-wide campaign for standardizing hospitals, which has as its slogan: "Better hospitals for everybody." "It is in line with this campaign that it is proposed to standardize the hospital here, and it means very much the same for a hospital to be standardized as it does for a school or college."

Mr. Bancroft outlined the definite amounts that are to be raised in this campaign and the uses: New laundry building $16,000. Sterilization room, $25,000. Operating room, $25,000. Equipment changes, diet kitchen, $4,000.

Miscellaneous $5,000. Total $30,000.

Mr. Bancroft said: "As I have thought about this campaign I have come to me that a statement I read recently is entirely applicable. There is a certain magic about the number four, if you think about it. There are four directions and four seasons and in general life four great institutions. Here in this campaign, we find it dependent for success upon four large influences—the pulpit, the platform, the press and the people. As I love over this assembly I am sure that you can accomplish anything for any worthy object."

Mr. Curry's Offer.
"It is a fine thing when a busy man like Mr. Curry lends himself to hospital work, devoting time and money to it. So you will be interested in knowing that at a recent meeting Mr. Curry pledged to give $2,000 toward the fund. Other trustees with physicians and surgeons make up a total of $5,000. Of the additional $3,000 needed to make the $5,000, $2,500 has been subscribed.

"We all know what Passavant hospital means to this community and I

MARION, O., Oct. 1.—In a front porch speech today outlining his program of social justice, Senator Harding described enforcement of law as a fundamental of social progress, and declared particularly that "we must not condemn without qualification the failure to enforce prohibition."

A federal department of public welfare was advocated but he proclaimed his opposition to concentration of too much authority in Washington and asserted that there was grave danger in authorizing the federal government "to take from local communities all the burdens of social conscience."

In his discussion of the league the candidate said he was sure "the mothers and wives of America do not wish to give their sons and husbands for sacrifice at the call of an extra constitutional body like the council of the Paris league."

HIGH TRIBUNAL IS URGED TO CONTROL BASEBALL AFFAIRS

League Heads Suggest
Plan for Powerful Board

METHOD WOULD WIPE OUT EXISTING EVILS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Representatives of four major league baseball clubs tonight started a movement designed to "clean up baseball forever" by taking control of the game out of the hands of men financially interested and placing it under a "civilized tribunal" to be composed of men "of unquestioned public standing."

A letter was sent to every major league club asking their approval of the plan. The letter was signed by William Veck, president of the Chicago National League club, Charles A. Comiskey, president of the Chicago American League club, Barney Dreyfus, president of the Pittsburgh club and John J. McGraw, vice-president and manager of the New York National League club.

It proposes that the National commission be abolished because "in its present form it cannot be impartial" and that in its place there should be a tribunal whose members would receive higher salaries than anyone now connected with baseball.

Prominent Men Suggested

General Pershing, Major General Leonard Wood, former President William Howard Taft, Senator Hiram Johnson, Judge Kenesaw M. Landis and William Gibbs McLean are some of the men proposed for the tribunal, but the letter adds that none as yet have been approached on the subject. The tribunal would be in absolute charge of all organized baseball leagues, of the players, the managers and owners and league president and its decisions would be beyond appeal.

The letter declares that such a plan must be worked out immediately if baseball is to continue as the national game. As a basis for proposed action the signers have agreed to a preliminary plan and agree to put it into operation, the letter says.

"The undersigned urge that the three most prominent men obtainable (in no wise connected with baseball) be obtained to act as a superior tribunal, and that such tribunal shall have unreviewable authority over presidents of all leagues, club owners, players and every other person, act or thing connected with baseball."

Would End Evils.

"Everyone connected with baseball would be absolutely under control of this tribunal."

"Likewise, it would be empowered to establish a proper relationship between minor and major leagues. It is unthinkable that such an environment and under such supervision anything unclear or unsportsmanlike could even remotely creep into the national game."

The letter requests club owners to sign an enclosed memorandum and return it to President Veck.

NEW ANGLE SEEN IN REPUBLICAN STATE SQUABBLE

If Court Rule Gives Oglesby
Nomination Small Will be
Independent Candidate

FOUR CANDIDATES FOR GOVERNOR PERHAPS

CHICAGO, Oct. 1.—Backers of Len Small for Governor tonight sent petitions to Springfield to be filed tomorrow asking that Small's name be included in the November 2 ballot. The petitions were drawn up by leaders said so that Small can run independently in case Lieutenant Governor John Oglesby receives the nomination when the final primary count is announced. Tomorrow is the last day for filing petitions.

The petitions were circulated following reports that Oglesby's backers were preparing a petition asking County Judge James T. Burns to throw out the ballots in 300 Chicago precincts on charges of fraud. It was pointed out that loss of these precincts would cut heavily into Small's vote for a big majority in his ballots were polled in Chicago.

Petitions also were sent to Springfield to place the name of Maynard Harlan, twice candidate for mayor of Chicago on ballot. These petitions were prepared by a group said to be dissatisfied with both Small and Oglesby.

With James Hamilton Lewis, the Democratic nominee the possibility of four principal candidates for governor of the state thus became possible.

GRIFFITH MAKES CHARGES AGAINST THE GOVERNMENT

Sinn Fein Founder Says Leaders Are to be Assassinated

SHOWS DOCUMENTS TO SUPPORT CLAIM

DUBLIN, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press.) Sensational charges that the government itself was responsible for reprisals in Ireland and that a certain number of Sinn Fein leaders were marked for assassination were made by Arthur Griffith, founder of the Sinn Fein organization, who said he was first on the list of intended victims.

Mr. Griffith, to support his statements, exhibited to the group of American, English and continental newspapermen, to whom he made a long statement referring that charges, alleged official documents secured by Sinn Fein agitators. Among these papers was an official permit, alleged to have been signed General Sir Neville McReady, military commander of Ireland. It was made out to a man named Hardy who had a life long career of felony and imprisonment and who is alleged to have been released prematurely from prison on a ticket of leave signed by Ian MacPherson, as chief secretary for Ireland permitting him to move about freely in Ireland unhampered by police surveillance in the role, as Mr. Griffith asserted, of a government spy. Although accustomed to almost daily sensations Dublin was greatly excited over the revelations of Mr. Griffith, which were published in one of the afternoon papers. It is pointed out that the documents are authentic, Mr. Griffith is liable to arrest under the "defense of the realm act" and under the new Restoration of Order Act, for having then in his possession and particularly a military order relating to a movement of troops not yet carried out.

The family lived many years in Naples and it is probable that Naples will be there, although Mr. Hale has not yet received the facts about the funeral arrangements. Mrs. Hale was a member of the Methodist church and was a woman who lived in a way to command the respect of all who knew her.

The regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Central Christian church was held Friday night with a large attendance.

Frank Byrns, president, was unable to be present and Rev. M. L. Pontius presided in his stead. The address was by Rev. T. H. Tull, who took "The Church" as his theme. He emphasized the thought that a church is not the building of brick or stone but the organization and the people who compose it. He discussed the church as a family—a brotherhood—and said that it should be an aggressive force for righteousness.

Members of the Brotherhood made the address strong and helpful.

Washington, Oct. 1.—Investigation by the postoffice department of recent postal airplane accidents in which pilots lost their lives when the machines caught fire in the air has shown that the primary cause was a defective gasoline feed system. Charges that the accidents were attributable to carelessness of employees were repudiated by the department's announcement.

Faults of construction discovered are being remedied the statement said.

MRS. E. H. HALE DIES IN CHICAGO

Telegram Received by Thomas Hale Brought News of His Aged Mother's Death.

Thomas Hale last night received a telegram telling of the death of his mother, Mrs. E. H. Hale, in Chicago. The deceased, who was formerly a Jacksonville resident, had been living in Chicago for about twenty years and made her home with her daughter, Mrs. Blanche Giviller. Mrs. Hale was 78 years of age and had been in failing health for a year. She leaves three daughters, Mrs. Ida Went, Cleveland, Ohio; Mrs. Giviller and Miss Adelle Hale of Chicago; four sons, Thomas of this city; Fred, Gary, Ind.; Frank, of Naples, and Reu of Chicago.

The family lived many years in Naples and it is probable that Naples will be there, although Mr. Hale has not yet received the facts about the funeral arrangements. Mrs. Hale was a member of the Methodist church and was a woman who lived in a way to command the respect of all who knew her.

AGED MINISTERS GRANTED MORE AID BY METHODISTS

The Rock River Conference
Doubled Sum Used for
This Purpose

CENTENARY MOVEMENT COMMENDED BY BISHOPS

ROCKFORD, Ill., Oct. 1.—Increase of its endowment for relief of aged ministers from $500,000 to $1,000,000 was unanimously approved by the Rock River conference of the Methodist Episcopal church in session here today.

Dr. Charles Kelly, chairman of the Superannuates' Relief association and board of conference claimants, reported that $507,500 had already been pledged for the fund of which $307,000 is now in the treasury.

Bishop F. M. Bristol of Chattanooga, Tenn., presided at today's sessions which were held in the church of his boyhood. In one address he urged the ministers "not to overlook the emotional side of religion," condemned "unemotional intelligence" and declared that present day emotion is expressed thru the check book. "It is the minister's job to help sinners part with their sin and saints part with their money."

Speaking on the centenary campaign of the church the bishop urged that laymen must magnify the opportunity to give money to the church. "A man must consecrate his money making genius; God wants money from the man he has enriched."

He asked the ministers to have more courage in asking for money.

"What right have you to tell men what to do with their money? The same right that a real estate dealer, an insurance agent or any man that hangs a 'Room and Shoe' sign over a store has to advise a man to invest money with him."

Poles Take Many Prisoners
On Grodno-Lida
Sector

VILNA MAY FALL AT ANY MOMENT

RIGA, Oct. 1.—(By The Associated Press.) Military news from the Russian-Polish and Polish-Lithuanian fighting fronts is entirely over shadowing the Peace Conference. Messages received by the Polish delegation from the Grodno-Lida sector say virtually all of the fourth Bolshevik army has been captured by the Poles and that all the staff was taken, except the commanding general and the chief of the staff.

Prisoners to the number of 26,650 were made while 426 machine guns and 26 heavy field guns were captured. Among the prisoners was a special detachment of communists and many technical men.

Thursday reports recorded the occupation of Baranovitch and announced that the capture of Vilna was expected at any moment. The Bolshevik yesterday submitted a letter to the Polish delegation objecting to their delay in replying to the soviet preliminary peace terms.

Adolph Joffe, head of the Russian delegation had a conference last night with Colonel Tallents, British commander at Riga. As a result there were many rumors today that the British are offering their good offices to save the Riga conference from the same fate as the Minsk conference.

The regular monthly meeting of the Brotherhood of Central Christian church was held Friday night with a large attendance.

Frank Byrns, president, was unable to be present and Rev. M. L. Pontius presided in his stead. The address was by Rev. T. H. Tull, who took "The Church" as his theme. He emphasized the thought that a church is not the building of brick or stone but the organization and the people who compose it. He discussed the church as a family—a brotherhood—and said that it should be an aggressive force for righteousness.

Members of the Brotherhood made the address strong and helpful.

Mr. Ferguson will make an investigation of the creek in which the sewage is now discharged and will go over the whole situation generally with reference to an enlarged sewer system for Jacksonville. Frank J. Waddell is the chairman of the special sewer committee.

CLEVELAND NEEDS ONE MORE GAME

NEW YORK, Oct. 1.—Cleveland can clinch the American League pennant by winning one of its two remaining games or by Chicago losing one of its two games.

The best Chicago can do now is to tie the league leaders and this would necessitate winning twice, while the Indians lost their two games with Detroit.

LODGE ATTACKS THE WILSON RECORD

Hartford, Conn., Oct. 1.—Senator Henry Cabot Lodge of Massachusetts, Republican leader of the senate in an address here tonight, attacked the leadership of President Wilson, declared the conduct of the war was marked by "wild extravagance and reckless expenditure of money" and denounced the covenant of the league of nations and urged the voters of Connecticut to re-elect Senator Brandegee.

WORKERS READY FOR PASSAVANT CAMPAIGN

Fine Enthusiasm Shown at Conference Held
Friday—A. A. Curry Pledges First $2,000
Toward Fund—Hospital Work and Need
Explained—Will Attempt to Raise $30,000

That was a fine meeting that man like Mr. Curry lends himself to hospital work, devoting time and money to it. So you will be interested in knowing that at a recent meeting Mr. Curry pledged to give $2,000 toward the fund of other trustees with physicians and surgeons make up a total of $5,000. Of the additional $3,000 needed to make the $5,000, $1,500 has been subscribed.

"We all know what Passavant hospital means to this community and I am sure we are all glad of the opportunity to join in the effort to make it still more helpful."

Mr. Brown said that Passavant hospital has possibilities of large development and after the institution has been standardized that it will form the nucleus for a really great hospital. Then he introduced Felix E. Farrell as one of the long time trustees of the hospital who has devoted a great deal of time to it.

Mr. Farrell gave a very clear statement of what the hospital has done and what it means to the community. He said: "We all of us felt that the success of this campaign was assured when we saw this assembly, the general response to the invitation to be present for the final conference before the actual campaign begins."

Some Hospital History.
"Passavant hospital is in need of this aid. It probably always will be in need of some aid, for it is so in every community where a hospital is maintained on the basis of the one here. Under Lutheran control the hospital had a yearly deficit which was met by the trustees. Then the Lutheran church leased the hospital to local authorities and it was managed for a time at a small loss. Still later the Lutheran organization decided to deed the property to the churches and others here. You are many of you familiar with that deed, whereby the hospital became the definite charge of the Protestant churches and such organizations as should later be admitted by action of the trustees."

"As years have gone by the demands upon the hospital have increased from the outside and the sphere of usefulness has enlarged. S. W. Nichols and I have served upon the board of trustees longer than any other persons and no man has given as much financially to the hospital as Mr. Nichols. It was his gift of $15,000 that made possible the erection of the nurses' home, and it will remain always a monument to him. Other persons have given liberally to the hospital in both time and money."

Charity Work.
"Sometimes the charge is made that the hospital gives nothing away for charity, but the figures show that at least $3,000 is spent for charity each year. The idea has sometimes been prevalent that where patients did not pay that the service rendered could be charged to Morgan county. The fact is that there are no county charges but those directly authorized by the county board of the county physician. The past year 33 patients were cared for at the hospital for whom nothing was paid. Thirty were there as county charges. As the county paid but $10 per week for each patient, there was a net loss per week of $6.88 on each one of these county charges. Then there are always patients who are able to pay only a part of the regular charges and for the past year the losses on such patients amounted to practically $1600."

Mr. Farrell then paid tribute to the splendid work done by Miss Vennum as superintendent of the hospital and explained something about the operation of the free bed fund, thru which fund semi-charitable work is done. Mr. Farrell said the trustees expected the time to come when each one of the Protestant churches will include the hospital in the annual budget, making a definite provision therefor. It is suggested that the first year 2 per cent be set aside for the hospital and that this level be maintained.

"It's Your Hospital."
The slogan of the present campaign is "It's your hospital," and so the trustees wish to emphasize that fact upon the churches.

H. M. Capps, who is city chairman, spoke very briefly and said he realized after looking over the company that if the city is to keep pace with the county organization that the workers must get busy. He said that in the past he had not been actively identified with the hospital work but as he had looked into it was fully convinced of the importance of the hospital to the community. He expressed entire confidence that the $30,000 can be raised within the specified time.

Charles S. Black, head of the county organization, in his brief remarks emphasized the thought that the hospital means much in its providing of trained nurses for Jacksonville and the community.

SENATOR HARDING—A MAN OF HIGH IDEALS

Detaching that American motherhood is the most precious of all American possessions and setting forth high ideals of social justice, Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for President, delivered at Marion, Friday, what in many respects is the most remarkable address he has made since his nomination. The statements made by Senator Harding commended to the women of this country for their earnest consideration.

He spoke to a large audience of women, prominent throughout the country in the great cause of social justice, and advancement of the cause of human rights. His utterances were given profound attention. Not only did he set forth exalted ideals of social justice, but at the same time he declared for plans of legislative and administrative procedure calculated to put these ideals into effect.

The address was non-political. It dealt with problems of a higher realm than politics. Many of the women in the audience were of the Democratic faith.

In the picture he drew of his views of social justice, Senator Harding kept ever in the foreground the protection of American womanhood. He declared that the great army of "potential maternity demands from America careful and adequate protection in the conditions which surround their labors."

"The protection of the motherhood of America," said Senator Harding "cannot be accomplished until the state and the nation have enacted, and by their example have enforced, customs which protect womanhood itself."

"I pledge myself today," said Senator Harding, "to support with all that is in me whatever practical policy of social welfare and social justice can be brought forward by the combined wisdom of all Americans. Nothing can concern America, and nothing can concern me as an American more deeply than the health, the happiness and enlightenment of every fellow-American."

Senator Harding addressed his audience as Americans and declared in his opening statement that the new extension of women's activities had been taken and will be taken "without peril to that most precious of all American possessions—America's motherhood."

He declared citizenship is based on obligation and that he would not even consider a policy of social justice unless founded on the American doctrine of the duties of everyone to all and that the best social welfare worker in the world is the man or woman who lives righteously and does his or her work well.

Senator Harding declared for a government department of public welfare as the most efficient way of advancing a humanitarian program. That this points to a new department to deal with the public welfare, headed by a Cabinet officer, when Senator Harding becomes president is generally accepted. It means a most important departure from present administrative plans with respect to problems touching social welfare and social justice.

Great danger existed, Senator Harding said, in any tendency to take the burden of social conscience from the local communities, from the individual man and woman, and put it into the hands of a centralized power.

Twelve million women in the United States," said Senator Harding, "forty per cent of them between fifteen and twenty years of age, are engaged in paid occupations or professions. Such an army of potential maternity demands from America careful and adequate protection in the conditions which surround their labors. For such an army there must be an increasing enlightenment in industry and business which will tend to break down distinctions of sex in matters of remuneration, and establish equal pay for equal work. The needs of such an army, engaging in the tasks of America, probably can not be understood by men alone. In the administration of federal and state laws, and in the educational services which will assist industry and the public, and the women themselves, to understand the needs of women, we will require the services of the most capable women we can get upon federal and state boards of employment, wherever the welfare of maternity and the welfare of American childhood, directly or remotely, are involved."

The eight-hour day and a living wage for women were favored by the speaker. He raised his voice, too, in behalf of the women on the farms of the United States, and he paid these women a tribute.

Senator Harding spoke out, too, for extension of the children's bureau and said it was a grim jest that the government was spending twice as much for suppression of big cholera as for the welfare of the American child.

He spoke for prevention of abuses of child labor, for protection of health of American maternity and childhood, for a national campaign in behalf of health and higher standards of physical well-being, for industrial peace thru adjustment and conciliation.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

RUMORS OF WARS.

One day the Russian hunt their holes, pursued by fierce, triumphant Poles; the next the Poles are on the run, spurred on by Russian sword and gun. And, as I doze myself for gout, I wonder what it's all about. There's trouble brewing everywhere, and warlike rumors fill the air. I thought, when closed the three-ring war, "Peace is the thing we're yearning for; the whole blamed world is sick of gore, and weary of the cannon's roar, and tired of human tears and groans, and of the sight of bleaching bones. The nations all would speed the plow and set the hen and milk the cow, pursue the gentle arts of peace, and bid the yawning captains cease." But now the Pole pursues the Russ and makes a most unseemly fuss; and now the Russ pursues the Pole, and shoots him with a ton of coal; wherever men infest the map, some tribes are itching for a scrap. And as I feed myself with kraut, I wonder what it's all about. Why can't the blame for nations meet with friendly hearts, in concord sweet, and settle all their silly rows, and then go home to milk the cows? Why does the Pole pursue the Russ, and shoot him with a blunderbuss? Why does the Russian swat the Pole? Has he no higher, nobler goal? Why don't they meet with friendly grins, and shake the dice to see who wins?

PLENTY OF FRUIT BUT NO MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Vaughn have returned from Old Mission, Mich., where they spent the summer months on their fruit farm. They came from the north in their automobile. Mr. Vaughn has for years made it a practice to spend the greater part of the summer either in Michigan or the west and has good reasons for believing that the long vacation periods, which are really spent at work, are profitable.

Talking about crop conditions in Michigan, Mr. Vaughn said yesterday that orchards have borne plentifully, but business conditions have been far from satisfactory and quite in contrast to those of a year ago. All summer long it has been so and the fruit grower has been practically without a market. In the summer of 1919 the buyers were numerous and were willing to pay good prices. This year frequently they are not willing to buy at all, and if they do so, insist on very low prices.

On the return trip home Mr. Vaughn drove thru one town in the peach producing district where 500 baskets of spoiled fruit had been thrown away that day. In another town fine peaches were readily available at $1 a bushel, but there was practically no demand. Nobody seems to be able to get a satisfactory explanation of the situation.

SENATOR HARDING—A MAN OF HIGH IDEALS

Declaring that American motherhood is the most precious of all American possessions and setting forth high ideals of social justice, Senator Warren G. Harding, Republican nominee for President, delivered at Marion Friday, what is in many respects the most remarkable address he has made since his nomination. The statements made by Senator Harding are commended to the women of this country for their earnest consideration.

He spoke to a large audience of women, prominent throughout the country in the great cause of social justice, and advancement of the cause of human rights. His utterances were given profound attention. Not only did he set forth exalted ideals of social justice, but at the same time he declared for plans of legislative and administrative procedure calculated to put these ideals into effect.

The address was non-political. It dealt with problems of a higher realm than politics. Many of the women in the audience were of the Democratic faith.

In the picture he drew of his views of social justice, Senator Harding kept ever in the foreground the protection of American womanhood. He declared that the great army of "potential maternity demands from America careful and adequate protection in the conditions which surround their labors."

"The protection of the motherhood of America," said Senator Harding "cannot be accomplished until the state and the nation have enacted, and by their example have enforced, customs which protect womanhood itself."

"I pledge myself today," said Senator Harding, "to support with all that is in me whatever practical policy of social welfare and social justice can be brought forward by the combined wisdom of all Americans. Nothing can concern America, and nothing can concern me as an American more deeply than the health, the happiness and enlightenment of every fellow-American."

Senator Harding addressed his audience as Americans and declared in his opening statement that the new extension of women's activities had been taken and will be taken "without peril to that most precious of all American possessions—America's motherhood."

He declared citizenship is based on obligation and that he would not even consider a policy of social justice unless founded on the American doctrine of the duties of everyone to all and that the best social welfare work in the world is the man or woman who lives righteously and does his or her work well.

Senator Harding declared for a government department of public welfare as the most efficient way of advancing a humanitarian program. That this points to a new department to deal with the public welfare, headed by a Cabinet officer, when Senator Harding becomes president is generally accepted. It means a most important departure from present administrative plans with respect to problems touching social welfare and social justice.

Great danger existed, Senator Harding said, in any tendency to take the burden of social conscience from the local communities, from the individual man and woman, and put it into the hands of a centralized power.

Twelve million women in the United States," said Senator Harding, "forty per cent of them between fifteen and twenty years of age, are engaged in paid occupations or professions. Such an army of potential maternity demands from America careful and adequate protection in the conditions which surround their labors. For such an army there must be an increasing enlightenment in industry and business which will tend to break down distinctions of sex in matters of remuneration, and establish equal pay for equal work. The needs of such an army, engaging in the tasks of America, probably can not be understood by men alone. In the administration of federal and state laws, and in the educational services which we assist industry and the public and the women themselves, to understand the needs of women, we will require the services of the most capable women we can get upon federal and state boards of employment, wherever the welfare of maternity and the welfare of American childhood, directly or remotely, are involved."

The eight-hour day and a living wage for women were favored by the speaker. He raised his voice, too, in behalf of the women on the farms of the United States, and he paid these women a tribute.

Senator Harding spoke out, too, for extension of the children's bureau and said it was a grim fact that the government was spending twice as much for suppression of big cholera as for the welfare of the American child.

He spoke for prevention of abuses of child labor, for protection of health of American maternity and childhood, for a national campaign in behalf of health and higher standards of physical well-being, for industrial peace thru adjustment and conciliation.

Rippling Rhymes By Walt Mason

RUMORS OF WARS.
One day the Russian hunt their holes, pursued by fierce, triumphant Poles; the next the Poles are on the run, spurred on by Russian sword and gun. And, as I dope myself for gout, I wonder what it's all about. There's trouble brewing everywhere, and warlike rumors fill the air. I thought, when closed the three-ring war, "Peace is the thing we're yearning for; the whole blamed world is sick of gore, and weary of the cannon's roar, and tired of human tears and groans, and of the sight of bleeding bones. The nations all would speed the plov and set the hen and milk the cow, pursue the gentle arts of peace, and bid the yawning captains cease." But now the Pole pursues the Russ and makes a most unseemly fuss; and now the Russ pursues the Pole, and shoots him with a ton of coal; wherever men infest the map, some tribes are itching for a scrap. And as I feed myself with kraut, I wonder what it's all about. Why can't the blame folk nations meet with friendly hearts, in concord sweet, and settle all their silly rows, and then go home to milk the cows? Why does the Pole pursue the Russ, and shoot him with a blunderbuss? Why does the Russian swat the Pole? Has he no higher, nobler goal? Why don't they meet with friendly grins, and shake the dice to see who wins?

PLENTY OF FRUIT BUT NO MARKET

Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Vaught have returned from Old Mission, Mich., where they spent the summer months on their fruit farm. They came from the north in their automobile. Mr. Vaught has for years made it a practice to spend the greater part of the summer either in Michigan or the west and has good reasons for believing that the long vacation periods, which are really spent at work, are profitable.

Talking about crop conditions in Michigan, Mr. Vaught said yesterday that orchards have borne plentifully but business conditions have been far from satisfactory and quite in contrast to those of a year ago. All summer long it has been so and the fruit grower has been practically without a market. In the summer of 1919 the buyers were numerous and were willing to pay good prices. This year, frequently they are not willing to buy at all, and if they do so, insist on very low prices.

On the return trip home Mr. Vaught drove thru one town in the peach producing district where 500 baskets of spoiled fruit had been thrown away that day. In another town line peaches were readily available at $1 a bushel, but there was practically no demand. Nobody seems to be able to get a satisfactory explanation of the situation.

"The Skywayman"

Lt. Locklear's last and greatest picture. In this picture Locklear plays the part of a member of the Lafayette Escadrille who loses his memory as the result of a crash in France, and then, on his return to America, fails to recognize his old friends. His plight leads him into a series of adventures which call forth all his aeronautic skill. A race with an express train, a collision with a church steeple and a dozen other daring exploits are brought out with startling realism.

Rheumatism Comes

From Tiny Pain Germs

First of all, get it firmly fixed in your mind that all the liniments in the world have no effect whatever on Rheumatism.

Medical scientists differ as to the causes of every form of rheumatism, but agree that when caused by a tiny disease germ, the only effective method of treatment is to cleanse the blood of its cause.

A very common form of rheumatism is caused by millions of tiny disease germs which infest the blood. The one and only sensible treatment, therefore, is one which cleanses the blood of these germs and routes them entirely out of the circulation.

This is why S.S.S., the greatest known blood purifier, is so successful in the treatment of Rheumatism. It is a powerful cleanser of the blood, and will remove the disease germs that cause your Rheumatism, affording relief that is genuine.

S.S.S. is sold by all druggists. Free literature and medical advice can be had by writing to Chief Medical Adviser, 826 Swift Laboratory, Atlanta, Ga.

MR. QUAST HEARD IN RECITAL

Head of Conservatory Voice Department Gave Fine Program

The first recital of the season was given in Northminster church Friday evening by Clayton C. Quast, baritone, assisted by Edmund Munger, pianist, in the presence of a large and responsive audience.

Mr. Quast has recently come to Jacksonville to take on the position of head of the voice department of the conservatory. His singing for several weeks past at State Street church services has proved an inspiration to that congregation and promised much for the occasion of his appearance in recital. The hearty response and enthusiastic applause accorded him last evening by the Jacksonville public disclosed that his work even exceeded their really high expectations.

The opening number, a universal favorite for baritone singers, the Prolog from Leoncavallo's opera "Pagliacci," revealed at once a powerful voice, of surpassing beauty. As the program proceeded and it was heard in the Old English and French groups, the Negro Spirituals and the four songs at the close, new effects of tone color and nuance and a great depth and range enhanced the early impression.

Mr. Quast's tone production seemed perfectly suited to his instrument and at all times, during the sustained passages, the florid phrases, bravuras, the dramatic climaxes and pianissimo work, he spoke a perfect control. His interpretative gift is great. He sings with an inborn dramatic feeling—that essential for the real singer—and, by his authority and poise, makes the emotional qualities of his art most convincing.

It is regrettable that lack of space denies discussion of each number on the program. Arranged to please widely divergent tastes, every selection had musical dignity and was worthy of the singer's art. He seemed equally at home in the intensely dramatic Prolog, the tender "Little Bateese," the romantic "Beau Soir" and the rollicking "Didn't it Rain."

The audience expressed their keen pleasure by much vigorous applause and it is difficult to say which numbers pleased best. Mr. Quast very graciously responded with a number of encores, singing Chaminade's "The Little Silver Ring," Spross' "Jean," Rogers' "Reveille."

Everyone in the audience was conscious of the beautiful playing of Edmund Munger who, in the capacity of accompanist gave perfect support to the singer and colorful flashes of his own brilliance as a pianist.

The Conservatory is to be congratulated on having secured for the school and for Jacksonville

MR. QUAST HEARD IN RECITAL

Head of Conservatory Voice Department Gave Fine Program

The first recital of the season was given in Northminster church Friday evening by Clayton C. Quast, baritone, assisted by Edmund Munger, pianist, in the presence of a large and responsive audience.

Mr. Quast has recently come to Jacksonville to take on the position of head of the voice department of the conservatory. His singing for several weeks past at State Street church services has proved an inspiration to that congregation and promised much for the occasion of his appearance in recital. The hearty response and enthusiastic applause accorded him last evening by the Jacksonville public disclosed that his work even exceeded their really high expectations.

The opening number, a universal favorite for baritone singers, the Prolog from Leoncavallo's opera "Pagliacci," revealed at once a powerful voice, of surpassing beauty. As the program proceeded and it was heard in the Old English and French groups, the Negro Spirituals and the four songs at the close, new effects of tone color and nuance and great depth and range enhanced the early impression.

Mr. Quast's tone production seemed perfectly suited to his instrument and at all times, during the sustained passages, the florid phrases, bravouras, the dramatic climaxes and pianissimo work, bespoke a perfect control. His interpretative gift is great. He sings with an intense dramatic feeling—that essential for the real singer—and, by his authority and poise, makes the emotional qualities of his art most convincing.

It is regrettable that lack of space denies discussion of each number on the program. Arranged to please widely diverging tastes, every selection had musical dignity and was worthy of the singer's art. He seemed usually at home in the intensely dramatic Prolog, the tender "Little Bateese," the romantic "Beau Soir" and the rollicking "Didn't it Rain."

The audience expressed their keen pleasure by much vigorous applause and it is difficult to say which numbers pleased best. Mr. Quast very graciously responded with a number of encores, singing Chamade's "The Little Silver Ring," Spross' "Jean," Rogers' "Reveille."

Everyone in the audience was conscious of the beautiful playing of Edmund Munger who, in the capacity of accompanist gave perfect support to the singer and colorful flashes of his own brilliance as a pianist.

The Conservatory is to be congratulated on having secured for the school and for Jacksonville

He said that it is because it makes such provision that the hospital is a big asset to the community. He also brought out the thought that while all former drives were good and necessary, the money for the most part was spent elsewhere.
The money raised in this campaign is every dollar for local use.

The shortage of Nurses.
Miss Venner, superintendent of the hospital, spoke very briefly and told of the campaign now being waged in a country wide way for "Enough Nurses for All." She said the shortage of women workers had been felt especially in the nursing profession, and mentioned that in the last year the demand for nurses was such from Morgan county and surrounding territory that not more than one demand in ten had been filled, and in Morgan county proper the ratio was one of three.

Since the training school at Passavant hospital has been established eighty-eight young women have graduated from it. During the war time the hospital was proud to have twenty-two of its young women in the service. The training school here has always been on the accredited list and since most young women who graduate from a training school take up the work in that community, the fact of the location of the school here has been of immense benefit to the community.

In closing Chairman Brown spoke of both Passavant and our Savior's hospitals as being two of the most important institutions here, and said if it were not for the presence of these institutions that the sock of Jacksonville and Morgan county would of necessity be sent to Springfield, St. Louis or other cities at great inconvenience and expense.

MATRIMONIAL

Hall-Hyde

The marriage of Miss Mary B.
Hyde of Prairie City to Mr. W. E.
Hall of this city was solemnized
Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at Prairie City. The wedding took place at the home of
Mr. and Mrs. Chester D. Bone,
with Dr. F. A. McCarty of Quincy
officiating. Mrs. Bone is a sister of the bride.

The ring ceremony was used
and a company of sixty relatives
and intimate friends was in attendance. The rooms of the home
had been very attractively decorated with pink roses and smilax.
The Mendelssohn wedding march was played by Mrs. Bone and the bride and groom without attendants stood before the minister.
Following the ceremony came the
congratulations and a bounteous
wedding supper was served by nieces and nephews of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on a late train for Memphis, Tenn., and are taking an extensive river trip.
After their return to Jacksonville
they will reside at the handsome home Mr. Hall has recently completed in South Jacksonville.

Mrs. Hall during the war time
was active in Y. W. C. A. work
and was secretary of the Quincy association. More recently she has been in like work at Dubuque.
Altogether she is a woman of fine
personality and many admirable
qualities.

Mr. Hall has spent all of his life in Jacksonville and is accounted as one of the strong and stable
business men of this city.

MATRIMONIAL

Hall-Hyde
The marriage of Miss Mary B.
Hyde of Prairie City to Mr. W. E.
Hall of this city was solemnized
Wednesday afternoon at 4:30
o'clock at Prairie City. The wedding took place at the home of
Mr. and Mrs. Chester D. Bone,
with Dr. F. A. McCarty of Quincy
officiating. Mrs. Bone is a sister
of the bride.

The ring ceremony was used
and a company of sixty relatives
and intimate friends was in attendance. The rooms of the home
had been very attractively decorated with pink roses and smilax.
The Mendelssohn wedding march
was played by Mrs. Bone and the bride and groom without attendants stood before the minister.
Following the ceremony came the
congratulations and a bounteous
wedding supper was served by
nieces and nephews of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Hall left on a late
train for Memphis, Tenn., and are
taking an extensive river trip.
After their return to Jacksonville
they will reside at the handsome
home Mr. Hall has recently completed in South Jacksonville.

Mrs. Hall during the war time
was active in Y. W. C. A. work
and was secretary of the Quincy
association. More recently she has been in like work at Dubuque.
Altogether she is a woman of fine
personality and many admirable
qualities.

Mr. Hall has spent all of his life in Jacksonville and is accounted as one of the strong and stable
business men of this city.

SOWING WHEAT

A number of farmers in this vicinity are now in the midst of sowing wheat. As a rule the grain is put in the ground much later than in former years in order to avoid destruction by the Hessian fly. On the other hand a farmer likes to get a good stand in the fall as the sturdy grain stands the winter frosts better.
